Notes:

When ordering, please note...

The berry bake will often change due to the fruit in season. Some examples are a Strawberry and Prosecco or Raspberry and White Chocolate etc.

Regarding the substitutions in extra, these are completely custom. If you would prefer swapping them for sandwiches, that's more than okay.

For the sandwich choices there are 4 quarters, so there are up to 4 choices. Of course you can select as many or as little options as you like.

The yogurt pots are based on what fruits are in season also, as these are topped with fresh ingredients. If you'd like to confirm before ordering, please ask.

If you have a queries or notes, please let me know as I'm happy to help.
